THREE ARE GIVEN SENTENCE STAYS

One Condemned Man Said To Have Made A Confession

(Associated Press.) Birmingham, June 8.—Two negroes were hanged in Alabama today.

Ben Moore, charged with the killing of J. A. Taylor, a merchant of Fairfax last year, and convicted in Chambers county, was put to death at La Fayette at six o'clock this morning. On the gallows he is said to have confessed to slaying Taylor, implicating Jim Sledge, now serving a life term in the penitentiary.

Willie Golson, convicted last May on a charge of attacking a Birmingham woman, and sentenced to die, was hanged in the Jefferson County jail here shortly after eleven o'clock. He was executed on the same gallows that claimed his father 23 years ago.

The trap was sprung at 11:04 a. m. Tom Wilson, Huntsville youth, who also was sentenced to hang today in Limestone County, for killing Kirby Cole, in November, 1921, was late yesterday granted a reprieve of three weeks by the state board of pardons. New evidence was said to have been found, tending to clear Wilson of the charge against him.

In Wilcox County, Winton Jackson, negro, was granted a respite of one week. He was convicted on a charge of murder in connection with the killing of Jim Donaldson and was to have been hanged today.

Nellie Bestor, negro woman of Bibb County, who also was sentenced to hang today, for the alleged slaying of her husband with an axe, was granted a stay of execution last Monday by the state supreme court and filed an application Wednesday for commutation after an appeal for a rehearing had been denied.

Outfielders Left To Wonder as Big Fog Beclouds Players

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, June 8.—The Cubs trimmed the Giants, 6 to 1, here Wednesday afternoon, largely because their feet were better accustomed to finding the home baselines.

A dense fog which rolled in on the ball park from Lake Michigan made the game, the most unusual, in point of weather conditions, ever seen in big league ball in Chicago. The spectators most of the time, could see only the batter, the catcher and part of the pitcher.

The outfielders generally couldn't see the batter and at times when the fog grew dense the batter could barely discern the pitcher. Infield plays were made Herculean tasks because the third baseman and shortstop couldn't see the first baseman.

Batters who hit into the outfield on more than one occasion ran two or three bases before learning that an outfielder had caught the ball. In the third inning, Vogel sent a long drive to right, reaching second and then was sent to the bench, the assumption being left that Young had caught the ball.

Later, when Friberg clouted the ball, Young went for it, turned a somersault and came up with the sphere in his mitt. Umpire Moran held that Friberg was out, but there was protest and Umpire, by virtue of glasses allegedly penetrative of fog was allowed to rule that Friberg was safe. Grantham scored on this hit.

So far as could be seen or learned, however, in spite of the fog, there were but four errors in the entire game.

Candidacy of McAdoo To Be Announced.

William G. McAdoo

William G. McAdoo, former Secretary of the Treasury, soon will make formal announcement of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for President, according to his friends in Kansas City, who met and conferred with him there while he was en route to Los Angeles. The formal announcement, it is said, will be made in order that his strength may not be dissipated by the whipping of his followers into line for other candidates.

NEW GERMAN NOTE IS FINDING FAVOR

(Associated Press.)

London, June 8.—The new German reparations memorandum has created a generally favorable impression in the London newspapers, most of which regard it as a distinct advance over any previous proposal.

The suggestion of a conference at which Germany would be represented meets the approval of a majority of the commentators. Considerable doubt is expressed, however, as to whether France can be brought into line with the other allies. Some of the editorial writers believing that she will reject the new proposal as flatly as she rejected the last. The Times, which describes the memorandum as virtually an invitation to the allies to search Germany's pockets, thinks it would hardly be reasonable for France to reject it, because it does not renounce passive resistance in the Ruhr. The newspaper hopes for a change in French opinion in this respect.

Paris, June 8.—Paris and Brussels are keeping in constant communication today, discussing the advisability of making a reply to the new German reparations note, or ignoring it entirely, as not susceptible of forming a basis for negotiations.

In the event a decision is reached that a reply be made, the French government is reported to favor a court dismissal of Germany's latest proposition.

Another Queer Twist Discovered In Morgan's Unusual Tangle of Courts

Another queer twist in Morgan County's unusual court tangle was discovered today, following the decision of the supreme court yesterday that justices of the peace could not issue warrants for misdemeanors.

Should W. T. Lowe, presiding judge of the county court, leave the county on a vacation or for other purposes, how could officials get a warrant for

FORD AND POWER CO. WIN APPROVAL

Subsidiary is Granted Right To Build On Tallapoosa River

FORD WILL SHOW NATION'S PEOPLE

Automobile Maker To Begin Work On His Project Very Soon

(Associated Press.)

Washington, June 8.—Final approval has been given by the federal power commission to the project of the Alabama Interstate Power company, to be located on the Tallapoosa river at Cherokee Bluff.

A permanent license was issued today and work will start about June 15.

The project, calling for production of 105,000 horsepower, is one of the largest now before the commission. The principal plant will be ten miles north of Tallapoosa, Ala.

The company holding the license is a subsidiary of the Alabama Power company, chief competitor of Henry Ford in bidding for Muscogee Shoals.

St. Louis, Mo., June 8.—Granting by the federal power commission to the Ford Motor company of a license to develop power at the government's "high" dam, between Minneapolis and St. Paul, will give Henry Ford a "good start" toward his campaign to show the American people what can be done by the use of waterpower now being permitted to go to waste, it was said today by persons close to the automobile manufacturer.

Announcement that the license has been granted, giving the Ford company development privileges for 50 years, was made in Washington last night.

It was learned locally that the Ford company plans to go ahead immediately with its power project to build a large plant as soon as possible, that will employ between 3500 and 4000 men and that ultimately it will be enlarged to permit employment of about 10,000 men.

Eventually Mr. Ford hopes to establish several large waterpower developments in various parts of the country.

Information about a large number of streams is being obtained.

Chinese Protest Japanese Action

Peking, June 8.—The Chinese foreign office today sent a note to Tokio, demanding an apology, indemnities and the punishment of the Japanese commander and his marines who shot down Chinese supporters of a Japanese boycott at Changsha, province of Hunan, on June 2.

Pony Killed By Electric Shock

A live electric wire proved fatal to the life of a black Shetland pony late Thursday afternoon. The pony was the property of J. C. Thompson, a carrier boy for the Albany-Decatur Daily.

Young Thompson was in the discharge of his duty in the delivery of his papers, and stopped in the alley that leads from the Albany city hall, north to Moulton St. He dismounted and started to hitch his pony to a tall pole when the animal was seen to act strangely and to rear as if in pain from his hoofs. Finally the pony fell dead at his young master's feet. The animal was shod with four new steel shoes. His death is believed to have been caused by the electric shock from a "ground" wire seen attached to the pole to which young Thompson started to hitch his pony. Efforts to restore the animal proved fruitless.

RUNAWAY TROLLEY WRECKS BUILDING

Motorman Is Held For Homicide Following Queer Accident

GIRL KILLED BY DESERTED CAR

When Power Goes Off Machine Starts Down Big Hill

(Associated Press.)

New York, June 8.—Patrick McNellis, a motorman, was held for homicide, charged with having deserted his car last night when the power failed and it plunged eight blocks down one of the steepest hills in the city, killing 13 year old Mary McLaughlin, seriously injured four others and made homeless 16 families who lived in a brick tenement, partially demolished by the crash.

The car was of one man type, operating on Amsterdam avenue. Just as it reached the top of the long hill, near Columbia University, the power failed. The motorman applied the brakes, but the vehicle started backward, down the hill.

The motorman jumped and a male passenger followed, leaving three girls and a woman in the car. Traffic gave the trolley a wide berth and hundreds ran, screaming, as the car, going 60 miles an hour, struck an open switch at the foot of the hill, tore along the street, and at a curve gouged away the front of the brick faced tenement and crushed the child to death.

High Court Affirms Reeder Sentence

The state supreme court has affirmed the case against Jim Reeder, Morgan county man, condemned to life imprisonment about a year ago in connection with the death of a small child, said to have been the child of Reeder.

Attorneys for Reeder stated today it was their full intention to make application for a new hearing, stating that they were convinced Reeder was a "victim of circumstances."

Negro Hanged In La Fayette Jail

(By Associated Press.)

La Fayette, Ala., June 8.—Ben Moore, a negro, was hanged here in the county jail at six o'clock this morning for the slaying of J. A. Taylor, merchant of Fairfax. On the gallows, Moore is alleged to have admitted killing Taylor, saying Jim Sledge, now serving a life time in the penitentiary, helped him do the killing.

TREMENDOUS ENERGY BOTTLED.

Walter S. Josephson, a modest and hard-working mechanical genius of New York, is the first man, so far as is known, to store a highly expansive liquid for every-day use. He is shown here in his laboratory releasing from a steel bottle a vapor which is powerful enough when turned into a cylinder jack, to lift a street car in a few seconds. Josephson's development has been acclaimed by his scientific associates as one of the foremost discoveries of the day, and in his own field will rival radio in its sphere, they say. He has been offered a fortune for his device.

KIWANIS HEAR CONVENTION NEWS

The Kiwanis Club meeting Thursday was devoted largely to hearing reports from those members of the club who had attended the Kiwanian convention in Atlanta, following the excellent dinner served by the ladies of the Central Methodist church.

Reports on the activities of the several committees of the club showed that the Kiwanians are enthusiastic for the meeting next Thursday evening at the new Knitting Mill, when Governor Brandon and A. G. Patterson will be the guests of honor and the chief speakers.

It developed at the meeting that not only have members of the Albany-Decatur chamber of commerce been concerned that the state's chief executive come to the Twin Cities and make an address, but many members of the Kiwanis Club have sought from time to time, since the election of Governor Brandon, to have him as an honored guest of the Twin Cities.

It was evident that Kiwanians consider it a happy ending of the efforts of the members of both organizations to have the Governor as the joint guest of the Morgan Kiwanis Club and the Albany-Decatur chamber of commerce.

Regular committees of the Kiwanis Club, are at work in the one big effort of the entire community to see that Mr. Patterson and the Governor receive a royal welcome and have a big crowd out to hear them, when they speak Thursday night.

Report on the Atlanta Convention The principal address on the Atlanta convention was made by J. W. Clifton. Mr. Clifton gave a general review of the entire program at Atlanta meeting and dwelt especially on those activities contemplated by the International Kiwanis Clubs, that impressed him as being the most useful to this section of the country.

The plans put forward by Kiwanians for a closer cooperation between the farmers and the buyers of their product were given consideration by Mr. Clifton.

Reports showed that first of all members of the Albany-Decatur chamber of commerce and of the Morgan Kiwanis club, will be taken care of regarding seats at the speaking Thursday night and at the banquet which will precede the speaking. It was estimated that the new knitting mill would accommodate about 250, and that the two clubs felt that the membership of the organizations should have

DR. JAMES DUNCAN REMOVED TO HOME

Dr. James A. Duncan is resting well at his home at the M. E. Parsonage of Decatur today with every indication that he will recover speedily.

Dr. J. P. Petty, one of the physicians attending the stricken minister, stated this morning that while he could not speak definitely as yet, that it was his firm conviction that a "toxic condition is effecting Dr. Duncan and that he will over come it, and be as well as he ever was."

This statement of Dr. Petty will be received with genuine satisfaction, especially since many had feared Dr. Duncan had sustained a very severe shock during his address at the Athens, Epworth League Convention.

Reports from the parsonage at noon today were to the effect, that while Dr. Duncan was able to receive visitors, as a precautionary measure, only those directly concerned with his recovery were for the present being admitted to his presence.

Reports from Athens yesterday morning were to the effect that Dr. Duncan would be able to come to his home in Decatur during the day and consequently every arrangement was made to receive him at the parsonage. He made the trip from Athens with little fatigue and has been improving every hour since.

A number of his relatives in addition to his immediate family, the parsonage today, to assist in every way possible in the early recovery of the beloved minister.

AS RECEPTION LINE OF ONE DEFENDANT RECEIVES FRIENDS

Condemned Boy Given Three More Weeks By The Governor

SCAFFOLD READY FOR EXECUTION

Preparations Were All Completed For The Hanging

The law, which placed the wavering feet of Tom Wilson on the threshold of eternity yesterday afternoon, in one majestic gesture, swept him back into a new lease on life of three weeks at least, leaving the noted defendant quietly and calmly confident that his complete innocence will be ultimately proven.

While officials of Limestone county stretched and tested the rope which would have ended Wilson's life at dawn Friday, up in the county jail, half a block away, a friend of Wilson, called from a place at his side to the telephone, caught the message from Montgomery telling of the reprieve. In a moment Wilson was told and the defendant found in words of the informer the realization of the hopes which had borne him up during a day more trying than many men are called on to undergo. A few minutes afterward official word was transmitted by Governor Brandon to Sheriff Gilbert and other officials of the county.

Immediately the storm passed. The sunshine of dazzling smiles took the place of clouded brows. The sinister shadow of death had been removed. When one has been on the brink of the great beyond, 3 weeks, no doubt, it a long, long time. Within that span of space, much may happen. Wilson told press correspondents yesterday he believed it would provide an opportunity for his friends and his attorneys to establish completely, positively and without doubt that he is not guilty of firing the shot which ended the life of Kirby Cole on the lonely Elkmont road, several miles from Athens, on a night two years ago.

Grateful to All. Quietly during the day Wilson had awaited his fate. Calmly he hoped, when it seemed that all hope was gone. Never did he lose that courage he has steadfastly clung to since the verdict of the jury was rendered in the Limestone county court.

Declaring he was ready, if the law said he must, to die, Wilson awaited throughout the long, hot afternoon, word of the action taken in Montgomery, while officials wrestled with his fate. When word of that action finally came, left in its wake—gratitude.

"Tell them I certainly appreciate their action," he declared to press correspondents. "I want to thank particularly Governor Brandon, the board of pardons, the officials, the press and the dear friends who have stood by me so faithfully."

Wilson expressed appreciation for the kind treatment he had received at the hands of Sheriff Gilbert and his deputies since his return to the Limestone jail from Birmingham.

Sheriff seems relieved.

During the afternoon crowds swarmed about the county tool house where carpenters had erected the scaffold. Shortly after four o'clock Sheriff Gilbert made his final test of the strength of the rope. The height of the condemned youth was carefully taken into consideration in cutting the length of the hemp. Every detail was gone over by officials. No bungling was to be permitted, a heavy weight was attached to the rope, the trap sprung, and the weight dropped through, swinging about six feet above the improvised sawdust floor. The weight marked the exact spot where Wilson's body was to sway and twist on the morrow, until the decree of the law had been carried out, and physicians had pronounced him dead.

COMPLIMENTARY TO ATHENS MAN.

The following resolution was unanimously passed by the Limestone County Bar Association and is of interest to Judge McClellan's many friends over the state, who have watched with much interest his record as a member of the state supreme bench:

Whereas it has come to the attention of the Athens Bar Association that Hon. Thomas C. Mc-Clellan, associate justice of the Supreme Court of Alabama, contemplates resigning from the bench at an early date; and,

Whereas, Judge McClellan by learning and experience through long, active and diligent service on the bench is peculiarly qualified for the position he now holds; and

Whereas, his resignation would create a distinct loss to the judiciary of the state of Alabama in depriving the Supreme Court, lawyers and citizens of Alabama of one of its most valuable judges:

Therefore, Be it Resolved by the lawyers of Athens, Limestone County, Alabama, in Bar Association assembled that we urgently petition and request Hon. Thomas C. McClellan to reconsider his purpose of resigning from the bench and to remain a member of the Supreme Court.

Be it further resolved that these resolutions be signed by all the lawyers of Limestone county and that a copy thereof be mailed to Hon. Thomas C. McClellan.

May 21, 1923.

To the Members of the Athens Bar Association:

The Hons. Fred Wall, W. T. Sanders, Jr., J. W.
Frost, Wm. M. Hundley, R. B. Patton, Edward

Goodrich, J. G. Rankin and W. W. Malone,
Gentlemen:

I am deeply grateful for the good will manifested and the commendation given in the resolutions of the Athens Bar Association, expressing the desire that I continue a member of the Supreme Court. I am particularly appreciative of the fact that the sentiments set forth emanate from the bar of my home town and county, where the bar and the people of Limestone have so long honored me with their sustaining sympathy, loyalty and support.

It is hardly necessary to add that any expression from the bar of Athens or the people of Limestone will receive, as it would deserve, my very earnest consideration.

With best wishes, I am gratefully your friend.

THOMAS C. MCCLELLAN.

Resolved by the State Bar Association of Alabama:

1. That the members of this association profoundly regret the decision of Judge T. C. McClellan to retire from the supreme bench of Alabama;

2. That Judge T. C. McClellan is justly regarded as one of the great jurists of the country and that his work as associate justice of the supreme court of Alabama has been a credit to that court, and of great benefit to the litigants and lawyers of Alabama;

3. That this association sincerely trusts that in his private practice as a lawyer he will meet with that measure of success to which his talents and integrity entitle him.—Limestone Democrat.

WHO SHALL ENTER THE HALL OF FAME WITH J. L. M. CURRY.

The people of Alabama are deeply interested in which one of the state's great men of the past shall be chosen to take a place with J. L. M.
Curry in the national hall of fame.

The people of the Tennessee Valley very naturally are looking forward to the time when a marble statue of General Joseph Wheeler shall grace our national capitol.

The solemn responsibility of a choice as to what Alabamian shall honor the state in the niche in the Hall of Fame at Washington must be borne by those who are charged with that responsibility.

The Englishman with his airplane flivver who made 25 miles on a quart of gas could sell a few over here if he would demonstrate the safety apparatus to the satisfaction of would-be purchasers. The down speed control is the thing.

The housing problem is not a problem in farm life. The big boys sleep in the garret if necessary.

As Reception Line
Of One Defendant
Receives Friends

The eighteen short steps, leading from the doorway of the tool house to the top of the scaffold loomed in the gathering dusk and the top of the scaffold cast ominous shadows against the roof of the shed as officials pronounced the instrument of execution entirely ready—and waiting for its victim.

Officials had carefully planned the death march from the jail to the tool house, some 200 yards distant.

"If Wilson is not too nervous we will bring him to the house from the jail, through the street carefully guarded, and closed, permitting no one to go through except the accredited witnesses."

As he spoke the man, upon whose shoulders rested the duty of springing the trap, seemed care-worn and tired.
Hanging is a serious business to Sheriff Gilbert. For 65 years, Limestone county had existed without the legal execution of a prisoner within her borders. Now upon the regularly elected executive officer of all the people of the county, rested the solemn duty of pressing downward the lever which opened the trap door in the scaffold and sending a man's soul on its eternal journey.

As between the two men, the executioner and the victim, Sheriff Gilbert appeared to be the more worried.

Two hours later—and the usual jovil-ity of the sheriff had reasserted itself. Years had been lifted from him.
Sheriff Gilbert was one of those who called at Wilson's cell after receipt of the reprieve.

Reception line of one.

As a reception line of one Wilson stood behind the bars of his cell in the Limestone jail to receive his friends last night.

Only one jarring note occurred in the melody of gladness. Tears listened in Wilson's eyes as it came time for him to say goodbye to one friend who had been with him throughout the bleak day. Taking the friend's hands in his own two, Wilson searched for words to express his appreciation and failed.

Members of the family who had been with the defendant during the day called again at the cell last night.

The little white room in which the youth was to have spent his last night on earth, was no longer bare. Gifts of tender friendship littered the space behind the bars. Many had thoughtfully sent roses and other early summer flowers. A wind storm blowing up out of the west, threatened the vases of flowers in the open window.
Wilson turned from receiving congratulations long enough to replace the vases, removed from danger.

Out of the valley of death, Wilson stands today, confident still courageous, still affirming his innocence, and still hopeful that he will be able to climb further the heights of liberty and happiness, but yet ready, if necessary, to bear his cross again.

Declaring he has made his peace with God, Wilson seems to fear the future as little as any man.

AYCOCK-FRAHN WEDDING

A brilliant event of the week and one of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Frahn, 432 W. Moulton street, Wednesday, June 7, at 3:30 p. m., when Miss Margaret Lucile Frahn was united in marriage by Rev. Joseph M. Sheridan, officiating.

Promptly at 8:30 o'clock the bride on the arm of her brother, Lawrence Frahn, preceded by the bridesmaid, Miss Mildred Frahn, descended the stairs to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Mrs. David Gibson accompanied by Miss Alice Hatton on the violin. The party was met by the groom and his best man, Albert Frahn where they stood under the archway which was a bower of roses and shaded lights. Here the vows were taken, preceding which Rev. Sheridan gave a few impressive remarks concerning the sacredness of marriage.

The bride was lovely in her dress of a handsome combination of grey canton crepe and spanish lace with a hat to match and her jewels were pearls and diamonds. She carried a corsage of white roses tied with white tulle. Miss Moebes was attractive in grey canton crepe with accessories to match and she wore a corsage of American Beauty Roses.

Upon their arrival the guests, about one hundred in number, were received by Mrs. Foote and Mrs. O'Bryant and punch was dispensed by Misses Lillian and Edna Aycock dressed in dainty costumes of pink taffeta and white lace. After the ceremony they repaired to the dining room which had been beautifully decorated in pink and white. The table was covered with a cluny lace cover over pink satin and was lighted with pink candles and the center bore a white wedding cake decorated with pink roses. Delicious pink and white ices in heart shape were served by Mrs. Van Armsdale, Mrs. Rowden and Mrs. Moebes. The wedding cake was cut with much merriment and Miss Loraine Worthington cut the ring.

Mrs. Frahn, mother of the bride wore a handsome costume of black crepe and lace and a corsage of sweet peas and the groom's mother, Mrs. Aycock was dressed in a pretty gown of canton crepe. Miss Margaret Young, of Cullman, who presided at the brides registry was unusually pretty in her costume of beige with a corsage of sweet peas.

The gift tables were loaded with beautiful cut glass, silver and linen, attesting the popularity of the young couple. The groom is connected with his father in the wholesale business and is well known in business and social circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Aycock left on the north bound train for a visit to relatives of Mrs. Aycock in Ohio after which they will visit Detroit, Nigra Falls and other points. ## How to throw off that tired, listless feeling GENERATIONS ago, our forefathers made a "tea" every Spring from certain herbs and barks to purify the blood. Likewise, since 1828, such herbs and barks have been carefully selected, proportioned scientifically and prepared for that great blood purifier—S. S. S. To serve beneficially from one generation to another successfully is a guarantee of its effectiveness. The way we live and eat, we can't step from Winter into Spring without purifying the blood; unless we choose to suffer depression, feel tired out, and have pimples and boils. It is so easy to give nature a little help, and the best sure way is to start with S. S. S. Stronger and more useful nerves depend on blood-power. S. S. S. will give you that greater endurance, energy, strength, and a more youthful appearance.

Mr. J. M. Mar, Los Angeles, Calif., writes: "Overwork occasioned a complaint which consisted of a tired feeling and pains in the back, that finally exhausted all my strength. A friend advised me to take S. S. S. and after taking only several bottles I was entirely relieved."

Try it yourself. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size is more economical. Buy a bottle today!

SAVED SICK SPELLS

Black-Draught Found Valuable by a Texas Farmer, Who Has Known Its Usefulness Over 30 Years.

Naples, Texas.—"I have used Thedford's Black-Draught for years—I can safely say for more than 30 years," declares Mr. H. H. Cromer, a substantial, well-known farmer, residing out from here on Route 3.

"I am 43 years old, and when a small boy I had indigestion and was puny, and my folks gave me a liver regulator. Then Black-Draught was advertised and we heard of it.

"I began to take Black-Draught, and have used it, when needed, ever since. I use Black-Draught now in my home, and certainly recommend it for any liver trouble.

"I have given it a thorough trial, and after thirty years can say Black-Draught is my stand-by. It has saved me many sick spells."

Mr. Cromer writes that he is "never out of Black-Draught," and says several of his neighbors prefer it to any other liver medicine. "I always recommend Black-Draught to my friends," he adds.

This valuable, old, powdered liver medicine is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and has none of the bad effects so often observed from the use of calomel, or other powerful mineral drugs. Be sure to get the genuine, Thedford's.
